THE IRISH LAND COMMISSION.

RULE

AS TO DELAY IN THE CONDUCT OF

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE LAND PURCHASE ACTS AND THE REDEMPTION OF RENT (IRELAND) ACT, 1891.

This 9th day of January, 1895.

The Commissioner shall from time to time, with the aid of the Examiner, investigate the state of each matter and the proceedings therein; and if any case appears not to have been prosecuted with due diligence, the party having the carriage shall be required by notice in writing to attend the Commissioner in Chamber to explain the reason of the delay. The Commissioner may, if he think fit, transfer the carriage to some other party interested, or may dismiss the proceedings, and in either case may make such order as may seem right as to costs, and may order the transfer of all papers and documents connected with the case. No agreement shall be withdrawn or dismissed without leave of the Commissioner, nor shall the several proceedings therein be stayed or delayed beyond the time at which the same respectively might be taken without the sanction of the Commissioner; and it shall be the duty of the Solicitor having carriage of any proceedings to prosecute the same with due diligence and effect, according to the course of the Court, and to take the Commissioner's directions upon any cause of delay which may arise.

(Signed), E. T. Bewley.
S. J. Lynch.
Fredk. Wrench.
Gerald Fitzgerald.
M. O'Brien.
